

JIM HUDAK – MUSICIAN

A Biographical Sketch

Performing nearly 200 engagements a year, Jim Hudak provides a wide array of music to enthralled audiences. With dozens of his compositions and recordings broadcast worldwide on the Sirius-XM, Pandora and Spotify music networks, Jim personifies an artist fully committed to his life of music. His six albums of piano based instrumental music showcase the broad scope of his multi-faceted talents.

Performing since age 10, primarily as a solo pianist, Jim is also a highly trained guitarist, vocalist, and composer. He has studied with acclaimed teachers throughout the United States. After earning a degree in Recording Arts from the San Francisco Bay Area's Los Medanos College, Jim built a powerful home recording studio that serves as a tool for his many original compositions. He also has a knack for choosing and performing uniquely suitable cover songs. His sound is his own, with a quality that's always fresh and new.

Jim also managed a retail record store for five years, and was a music licensing executive for ASCAP and SESAC in the 1980's and 1990's. In 1996, he returned to the artistic side of his music, passionately working on his performing, composing and recording. Jim founded his independent Brainstorm Records label in 1999 along with Savvy Music Publishing company. He combines hands-on music business experience and gifted artistic talent in a dynamic musical package. From pop music to blues, and from folk to jazz to classical, his talents know no boundaries. Experience the music of Jim Hudak. You're in for a treat.

For more information, contact: Jim Hudak, P.O. Box 488, Clayton, CA, 94517
Phone: (925) 683-1808
Email: jimmydak@pacbell.net Website: www.jimhuda